2017-2018 COVENANT FOR YOUTH AND PARENTS

The Youth Ministry of WCPC desires to create a safe Christian community for all minors and adults alike. Using a covenant is a Biblical way to memorialize your commitment to yourself and to the community. This is not to be seen as a list of rules but a list of needs that must be met to keep the community a safe and trustworthy place. We understand that non-compliance with the rules, especially regarding smoking, the use of illegal substances and alcoholic beverages, use of foul language, and inappropriate sexual conduct will result in consequences. For major offenses, such consequences will result in the immediate phoning of the parent to arrange for the return home of the Youth at the parents' expense. Minor offenses will result in one warning, with subsequent offenses resulting in the phoning of the parent to arrange for the return home of the Youth at the parents' expense. Non-compliance with all the rules regarding the use of cellular phones, personal entertainment systems or other personal devices will result in one warning, with subsequent offenses resulting in the Youth Ministry leader, or a sponsor or chaperone, keeping the device until the trip, outing or other event comes to an end.

YOUTH/TWEEN COVENANT

I understand that WCPC Youth events are faith-building, life-enhancing, and friend gathering events. I commit to take part fully in each event I am attending, giving it 100% and I commit to treat people and property with respect at all times. I will stick to the agenda and not wander from the premises. I will not use my cell phone during events except for emergencies. If I need to leave the large group for any reason I will inform the leaders, letting them know where I am, at all times. I will not participate in any behaviors that tear down the event or any of the participants in it, including but not limited to bullying. I will strive to include everyone in the activities and be welcoming to all people. I will wear clothes that are respectable and appropriate for the event or trip I am attending as well as show respect for other individuals' "personal space" and "individually set boundaries". I understand that I participate in group to be a part of the body of Christ, and will strive to form the respectful bonds of friendship and trust with my peers of all genders. I will not intentionally seek romantic or other inappropriate relationships with anyone among the program. I understand that regarding any inappropriate behavior, offenses will result in appropriate consequences: either one warning, with subsequent offenses resulting in, or the immediate phoning of the parent to arrange for the return home of the Youth at the parents' expense. I understand that if I continue to act in ways that break the bonds of this covenant, after appropriate warnings, Leader intervention, prayerful thought and parental contact, as a last resort, I may be asked to not participate in group for a time to be determined. Above all, I understand that I am a child of God and a representative of Christ and WCPC, and will act in a way that glorifies God, respects others, and is consistent with Christ's teaching, and the policies and procedures of WCPC.

PARENT/GUARDIAN COVENANT

I will support and encourage my child in their commitments, pray for them and all involved in these programs regularly, and I will do what I can to support the ministry of this church. I understand that I am responsible for my child's behavior and discipline, and will work with the leaders to insure that expectations are met. I understand that if my child continues to act in ways that break the bonds of this covenant, after appropriate warnings, YTM intervention, prayerful thought and parental contact, as a last resort, my child may be asked to not participate in group for a time to be determined. I understand the Covenants, Medical Release, Media Release, and Registration Information being turned in for my child.
