WEDNESDAY STUDY GROUP

Reading Biblical Literature: Genesis to Revelation

Lecturer: Craig R. Koester, Luther Seminary

The diversity of material in biblical books like Exodus, Isaiah, Psalms, Mark, and Revelation has prompted people throughout history (from religious scholars to celebrated artists to everyday worshippers) to ponder & debate the meaning of these classic texts. To understand and appreciate the Bible's many perspectives on faith, war, suffering, love, memory, community, & other enduring themes, it is enlightening to use a literary approach to reading & thinking about these separate books.

Our speakers will be: Sara Armstrong and Rusty Edmondson, who have served in Peru since January, 2009 as delegation and partnership coordinators for the Presbyterian Mission Agency and Daniel Pappas, who served in the Moyobamba office of NGO Paz y Esperanza as a photographer/videographer during the 2015-16 season of the Young Adult Volunteer (YAV) program.
