

Adult Class & Study Opportunities

Sunday Morning 9:30—10:45 am

Texts in Context (Lectionary Class) HEB Rm 303
led by Bob Campbell

In this class, we dig more deeply into the day's Revised Common Lectionary readings so that we can increase our understanding, enhance our worship experience and equip ourselves and each other to apply these biblical lessons in our daily lives. Meet in room 303 or to get the Zoom invitation and materials each week, contact Bob Campbell,

Connecting Through the Bible HEB 301 a&b
led by Sue Watkins, Neville Walker and Dave Watkins
The Connecting through the Bible Class is studying Jonah, Joel, and Amos using the InterVarsity Life Guide Old Testament series

First Place 4 Health HEB Rm 302 led by Patty Ahern

This group seeks to live healthy lives physically and spiritually, and support one another in this endeavor. The First Place 4 Health class is using Let. It. Go: How to Stop Running the Show and Start Walking in Faith. by Karen Ehman. Contact Mary Jo Chapman for information.

Bible History 101. HEB Rm 304
This class explores topics of church history and related subjects - from archeology to the evolution of Biblical belief among early church movements. The class views videos by noted scholars. At the end of the lecture, we open the floor for discussion & how it impacts on our beliefs & worship of God in the present. As each lecture series concludes, the members of the class choose the next series to study.

Thinking about Religion and Violence

Video-based study by The Great Courses

"If we want to know why 'bad stuff' happens in the name of religion, we need to understand how those who commit religious violence perceive what they're doing," says Dr. Jason C. Bivins, award-winning professor of Religious Studies at North Carolina State University. "That's the best way to understand why our world is producing so much of it, and what we can do about it."

Lecture transcript books available for purchase, order by July 23. For more information, contact Bob or Sylvia Campbell: bobnsyl@gmail.com.

Wed. Evening Men's Study Group
