Poco a Poco: A Catholic Worker Reflects on Life at Casa Juan Diego

DECEMBER 3, 2022 BY CHRISTOPHER "CJ" DONOFRY

It is the season of giving and receiving. Some would say it's the best time of the year. The days sandwiched between late November and Christmas are a special time hopefully spent with the ones we love. This is one of my favorite times of the year, and I think we can all agree that... Casa Juan Diego and the Healing of Trauma

NOVEMBER 26, 2022 BY DAWN MCCARTY, PHD, LMSW

Seven months ago, I was attacked and robbed by two carjackers. They had a gun, and one of them grabbed me from behind. You cannot predict what you will do in a fight or flight situation like this, but apparently, I fight. I managed to get away with only minor physical injuries, but the loss... continue reading

A Christmas Feast for the Whole Universe, From Many Countries Migrants Come to Casa Juan Diego

NOVEMBER 26, 2022 BY LOUISE ZWICK

"The star came to rest above the place where the child was. At the sight of it the wise men were filled with great joy, and that great joy should fill our hearts as well. It is the same as the joy the shepherds received from the glad tidings brought by the angels. Let us... continue reading

There's Water on the Floor Again at Casa Juan Diego

OCTOBER 12, 2022 BY CATHOLIC WORKERS OF HOUSTON

We celebrated our 40th anniversary a couple years ago. Some of our buildings should already have received a letter from the Queen, were they British, given their age. Our main building, constructed of steel and concrete due to prior fires, opened in 1987, so it is now 35 years old. In Houston, the clay... continue reading

From Casa Juan Diego to the University of Texas

AUGUST 9, 2022 BY GABRIELA MEDINA

Gabby was a Catholic Worker at Casa Juan Diego during the past months. She graduated from the University of Houston Downtown this May and will soon begin studies for her master's degree in social work at the University of Texas. My philosophy in this world is to maintain hope, in spite of the darkest hours... continue reading

A Celebration of Juan Diego at Casa Juan Diego Houston

JUNE 5, 2022 BY LOUISE ZWICK

We were inspired by a sermon on St. Patrick's Day this year at St. Patrick's Cathedral (online at 6 a.m. on weekdays) as the celebrant of the Mass reminded us of how the patron saint of a place looks out for the people of that parish or other place named for the saint, from heaven.... New Migrants Arriving at Casa Juan Diego – Can you help?

OCTOBER 1, 2021 BY LOUISE ZWICK

I had commented to our (few) Catholic Workers last week that the Lord was having mercy on us, giving us a break, because a number of families or individuals who had been living at Casa Juan Diego were moving on. But we soon realized that some of the people among the many thousands who were... continue reading
