
Subject:

News and Notes from PCHAS!

Presbyterian Children's Homes and ServicesSM

NEWS & NOTES
FROM PCHAS

Holiday Highlight: Emmanuel Presbyterian Church took center stage in orchestrating the Angel Tree program in Itasca, bringing joy and happiness to countless adorable children within our community. As we reflect on the success of this initiative, we are reminded of the positive influence that community engagement can have on the well-being of those around us during this past holiday season.

Spread Stories

We invite you to embark on a journey of inspiration and advocacy by signing up for a speaker from PCHAS to share their impactful stories at your church. Our speakers bring firsthand experiences, shedding light on the transformative work we do in the lives of children and families. sign up today and become a catalyst for change within your congregation!

Ask Our Team!

2024 Luncheons

This year, our theme is 'Dare to Dream,' encouraging us all to envision a brighter future together. Your presence will make a difference, as we come together to celebrate hope, resilience, and the power of collective dreams. Don't miss out on this incredible opportunity to be a part of something truly transformative. Save the date and RSVP to dare to dream with us!

Luncheon Information

Dedicated Volunteers

We are grateful for the support of our dedicated volunteers, Lynne Parsons and Dorothy Goforth at Southminster Presbyterian in Missouri City! Together, we've cataloged Angel Tree gifts, bringing joy to over 175 children in Houston & Louisiana. Thank you, Southminster Presbyterian Church of Missouri City, Texas for your generosity and making the holidays brighter for those in need!

To dive more into volunteer opportunities at PCHAS, make sure to check out our website! <https://www.pchas.org/get-involved/volunteer> Holiday Baskets!

The women from the First Presbyterian Church of Mesquite, Texas, generously contributed these holiday baskets. They will be distributed during the Foster Care and Adoption Christmas party in DFW. Each gift basket is thoughtfully filled with entertaining activities and family presents. Thank you so much for everything!

Rudolph Spotting

We were able to spread holiday magic with our Angel Tree programs. Guess who we spotted delivering joy in San Antonio? Rudolph! We are thankful to have such great opportunities to provide a special holiday season for children and families here at PCHAS!

We want to express our heartfelt gratitude to each and every one of you for being a part of our community here at Presbyterian Children's Homes and Services.

We encourage you to share this newsletter with your friends and family. Sharing is not just about spreading information; it's about creating connections and fostering a sense of community. By sharing this newsletter, you're helping us grow and reach even more people, and for that, we're truly thankful. If you have any questions, or if you want to get involved in any way, please don't hesitate to reach out.

Give us a call: 800.888.1904

5920 W. William Cannon Drive, Bldg. 3-Suite 100, Austin, Texas 78749

11701 Borman Drive, Suite 301, St. Louis, MO 63146

Copyright © 2024 Presbyterian Children's Homes and Services.

Unsubscribe | View this email in your browser | Donate

